

We are a leading Spanish company in the sector of Aluminium Die Casting and Mechanical Machining for the automotive industry. Within the context of our further strategic development we are looking for a

Resident Engineer (m/f)

Southern Germany

COMPETENCES

- Negotiating skills, quick perception, initiative, independent work, target oriented, communicative.

REQUIREMENTS

- Mechanical Engineer or comparable.
- Business fluent German and English language skills.
- Spanish language skills would help.
- Experiences in the automotive industry.
- Technical skills in Die Casting and Machining.
- Profound knowledge of the important Quality Methods like 8D, FMEA, etc.
- Immediate availability.
- Preferred place of residence near Stuttgart.

MAIN TASKS

- Regular customer visits with reporting to our Quality Manager of Ampuero plant (Spain).
- Follow up of quality complaints which might occur in customer plants.
- Contact and follow up of complaints with our subsuppliers in Germany (e.g. surface treatment).
- Establish and maintain good and lasting customer and supplier relationship.

WE OFFER

- Two months training in our Spanish plant in the areas process, product and customers.
- Individual career planning and further career options